If your gift is a gift of real estate, please note the location and value of the property as well as information about structures and materials included.

No goods or services were provided in exchange for this donation. Due to IRS regulations, some gifts may require certified appraisals that must be provided by the donor. The acceptance of all gifts for the college is subject to the PCC Foundation's Gift Acceptance Policies. A gift cannot be accepted by the college, an agent for the college, or the foundation until information is collected, reviewed, evaluated, and a designated use for the gift is determined. All gifts are to be directed to the Vice President of Institutional Advancement.
